Reading Starts Monday June 18

Online registration begins June 11

How it works for Early Literacy Birth—4 years

- Pick up reading logs at the library on or after Monday June 18, or print them from our website. Or register and track reading online at: wandooreader.com/pinckneylibrary/2018-early-literacy
- When you have completed 2 hours of reading bring your reading log in for a special sticker. After reading 8 hours (4 stickers) you will get a rubber ducky or board book to keep!
- Complete an early literacy activity sheet for an additional prize.
- Attend fun library events throughout the summer!

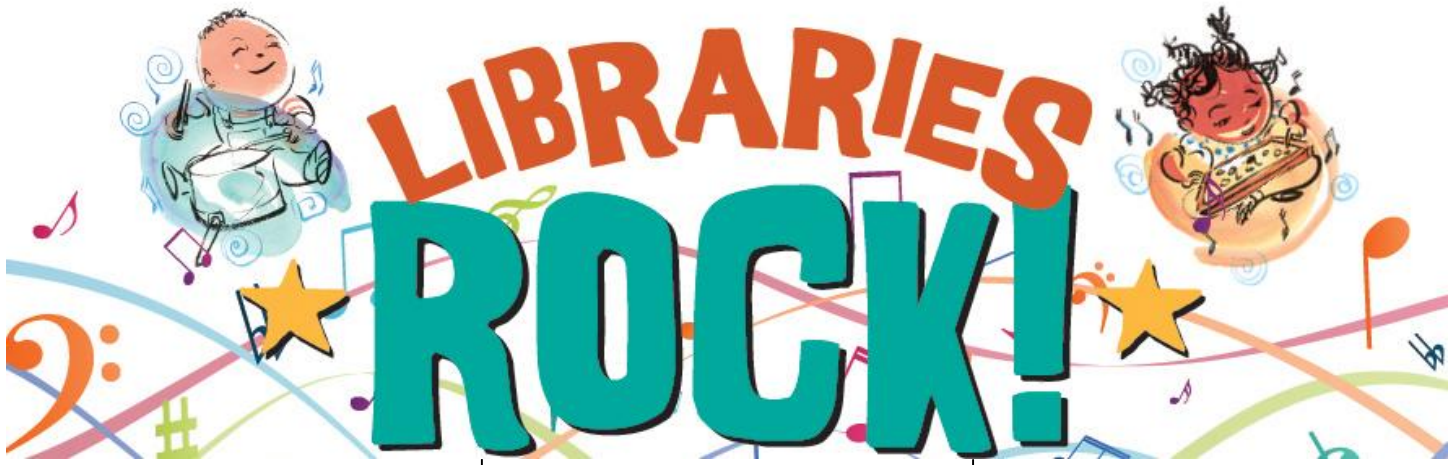

How it works for Children ages 4-12

- Pick up reading logs at the library on or after Monday June 18, or print them from our website. Or register and track reading online at wandooreader.com/pinckneylibrary/2018-summer-ages-4-12
- When you come into the library pick up your necklace (one per patron) and first brag tag. If you still have your necklace from a previous summer bring it in and we will give you a special brag tag for reusing it!
- Once you have completed 2 hours of reading check in at the library for a guitar bead for your necklace. Once you have read 4 hours you will get a fun brag tag to add to your necklace. Keep reading to add to your necklace.
- Complete the Libraries Rock Scavenger Hunt for an additional prize.
- Attend fun library events for additional beads for your necklace.

How it works for Teens ages 13-17

- Pick up reading logs at the library on or after Monday June 18, or print them from our website. Or register and track reading online at: wandooreader.com/pinckneylibrary/2018-summer-13-17
- When you have completed 5 hours of reading pick up a prize at the library. Prize options include free books, candy bars, and coupons for local businesses. You can check in for prizes up to 5 times for a total of 30 hours of reading.
- Complete the Libraries Rock Scavenger Hunt for an additional prize.
- Attend fun library events throughout the summer.
