Newspapers have always been the diary of their community, and are a not-to-be-missed resource when looking for details of your family history.

Discover what kind of events were reported in the society columns, legal proceedings, school reports and more!

Learn how to find newspapers both online and in libraries, and how to search the online databases most effectively, including a demonstration of the Newsbank & GenealogyBank news service databases.

Registration is required. Please call the library at 734-878-3888 for more information.
