

An illustration of a blanket fort built on a wooden floor against a wood-paneled wall. The fort is made of blue, green, and yellow patterned blankets. A sign that says "KEEP OUT" is attached to the front. The text "Family BLANKET FORT Night!" is written in large, white, outlined letters across the top, and "Thursday, March 28 7-8pm" is written in large, white, outlined letters across the bottom.

Family BLANKET FORT Night!

Thursday, March 28 7-8pm

Families are invited to join us at the Pinckney Public Library for blanket fort building fun! Each family will create their own fort in our big program room using tables and chairs to read in together!

Registration is required please call the library at 734-878-3888 and let us know your family will be attending!

Participants Will

- Call ahead and let us know they are attending.
- Bring 2 or 3 light weight blankets or sheets for fort building
- Bring a flashlight
- Pillows are okay but not required
- Wear your PJs if you want to

Library Will

- Supply space, tables, chairs, and clamps to help you build your fort
- Supply books and other fun reading material
- Supply make your own s'more trail mix